Hong Kong Tourist Spots

Ocean Park is on Hong Kong Island. It was opened in 1977. You can get there by MTR train or bus. You can go to the beautiful gardens. It is relaxing. You can see the dolphin show. The dolphins can jump high and throw balls. You will be amazed by their performance. The rides in Ocean Park are exciting. You can ride on the roller-coaster. You will be excited.

Stanley Market is on Hong Kong Island. You can take a bus from Central to get there. You can go to the open market because there are lots of Chinese clothing, paintings and souvenirs. They are all at reasonable prices. You can buy some souvenirs for your friends. You can have your lunch in the snack bars. After that, you can go to the beach to have a walk. It is relaxing. You can pick some sea shells and swim there. You can enjoy some seafood in a restaurant.

Teacher's comment: These two descriptions are very informative. You have really put a lot of effort into including interesting facts about the places e.g. Ocean Park opened in 1977. Your sentences are well constructed and it's easy to follow. Great work!

Swimming

My hobby is swimming. I started swimming when I was eight years old. When I go swimming I need a swimming suit, slippers, a towel, a swimming cap and goggles.

I spend one thousand dollars on my hobby every month. I swim in the swimming pool in Kwun Tong every Friday. I go swimming with my friends. I like swimming very much because it can keep me strong. I feel happy.

Teacher's comment: You give interesting details about your hobby and you present your ideas with such clarity. Keep up the good work.

Peter's birthday party

Sunny

16th December, 2016

Peter had his birthday party at the beach. It was a sunny day. There were three children at the party. It was the afternoon.

First, we had some activities, then we had sausages, fish balls, a birthday cake, sandwiches, chips, corn, fish fingers, pizza and sushi.

After that, some children built sandcastles.

The other children played ball games. We felt happy. We gave Peter a present. It was a toy car. We thought it was big.

Teacher's comment: Excellent use of past tense irregular verbs e.g. 'built' and 'had'. You have really applied your knowledge into this piece of writing so well done you!

A letter to Jenny

Dear Jenny,

How are you? In your last letter, you asked me something about the old and new Hong Kong. I really would like to share with you.

For eating, people grew rice, fruit, vegetables and made salted fish. They ate the fish they caught. Nowadays, people buy food from supermarkets and food stalls. They eat dim sum, hamburgers and instant noodles.

For travelling, people traveled by sedan chairs, rickshaws, trams, motorcycles and horse carriages. Nowadays, people travel by bus, ferry, MTR, Light Rail, taxi and minibus. I think it is more convenient.

For activities, children played beanbags, climbed trees, made toys, swam, played chess and listened to the radio. Nowadays, children play computer games, play jigsaw puzzles, make models, fly kites, play the piano, watch TV and sing karaoke. I think the activities are great because they can improve human's quality of life.

Please write soon.

Love,
Kristy

Teacher's comment: Very nice letter Kristy. I like how you told the reader about how you feel about transport nowadays e.g. 'I think it is more convenient' and that you think the activities can 'improve human quality of life'. This has given your writing a unique touch and makes it interesting to read. Keep it up!
